

Virginia Watercolor Society Regional Exhibit

“Summer of Color” July 2nd - August 28th

Arts on Main, in Gloucester, Virginia is excited to host the VWS Middle Peninsula Regional Artists for the “Summer of Color Exhibit” in partnership with The Bay School Community Arts Center in Mathews, Virginia and The RAL Art Center in Kilmarnock, Virginia. Arts on Main looks forward to exhibiting your work in the following subject matter:

Flora & Fauna

From the tiniest flower to the largest land and sea mammals, the exhibition at Arts on Main celebrates the diversity of the natural world and its enduring influence in art.

Artists may submit up to two works per gallery, for a total of six entries. Works must have been created after May 1, 2018 and can be representational, nonrepresentational or abstract. All entries must be received in digital format by May 29, 2021 and can be sent to director@gloucesterarts.org. Notification of accepted art will be made on May 31, 2021. Arts on Main will notify artists of which entries will be included in the show based on the number of entries received. Space considerations and cohesion of exhibition will be determining factors. All work submitted must be priced for sale including a 35% commission to Arts on Main. Selected artwork must be professionally framed or finished on all sides. Please ensure that there are no smudges or debris under the glass and that the frame is free of any kind of damage. Please do not deliver work with sawtooth hangers.
